PERSECUTION!

By individuals, Mobs & Governments.

PAST AND PRESENT By the General

What a strange and unaccountable thing persecution is! Every now and then bell seems to boil over, and the boiling lava of hatred and bitterness against the truth of God and all who proclaim and practice it appears to burst forth and flow out hissing and scalding in all directions. Hn or rather human patur page instant, or return named nature contented of the devi—seems to con-ain its fiendish malignity for a sea-on, but every n 7 and then the pent up, vile passions breakoot in oursing and stormings and lyings and clao-dors in every direction.

And yet, though all this seems strange, it is not new. It is as old fashioned as Cain who bested and alow his brother Abel became Abelle daugs were good and Cain ownered. He ought to have loved and imitsfed Abel, instead of which he corried and oursed and put him to death.

And though old it is yet new. It is quid though old it is yet new. It is in nur midst today, just as cruel and bitter and devillah and murderons es when imported fresh from hell 6,000 years ago.
